PRESIDENT MAY MAKE LONG STAY

Wilson Plans to Remain in Europe Until Peace Treaty Is Nearly Framed.

SEES PARTY LEADERS

Prominent Senate Democrats Call at White House and Confer With President Regarding His Plans for Trip.

Washington, Nov. 20.—After a two hour conference with President Wilson at the White House, Democratic senators left with the impression that the President now plans to remain in France indefinitely, or at least until the major portion of the peace conference's work has been finished.

The President was understood to be interested in the application, in the framing of the treaty, of the principle of the freedom of the seas, which he enunciated in his 14 terms, and on which the Allies in agreeing to discuss peace with Germany, have reserved the right of freedom of action at the peace conference.

To Put Through League.
The plan for a league of nations was another subject to which the President was said to have given much study. He was understood to regard this as essential for the maintenance of the peace of the world.

In his absence from the United States the President plans to continue to exercise all the functions of his office. He will keep in communication with Washington by wireless while at sea, and by cable, and, if necessary, by dispatch boats while he is abroad. While in France the President was said to plan transactions of any necessary executive business in the American embassy. Technically, he then would be on American soil. Should he visit London or any of the other Allied capitals the embassies there would become his executive headquarters.

Confers With Martin.
Senators attending the conference included Simmons and Overman of North Carolina, Pomeroy of Ohio, Walsh, of Montana and Swanson of Virginia, all chairmen of important committees. The President also conferred with Senator Martin of Virginia, Democratic leader.

The American merchant marine, labor problems, and the war revenue bill were other subjects taken up at the conference.

The President was said to have reiterated his views on the necessity for a great fleet of ships to carry the nation's commerce and to that end favors continuation of the government's ship building program.

Regarding labor, senators were said to have been told that maintenance of utmost confidence between employers and employees is particularly essential in the period of reconstruction.

Retrenchment in federal expenditures as far as is consistent was said to be desired by the President, who told the senators he already had taken steps to that end. In this connection, the pending war revenue bill was discussed.

FRANK P. WALSH

Mr. Palmer also announced the appointment of Harold Herrick of New York as manager and liquidator of the companies, which he said have annual premium accounts of $16,761,424.

A recent investigation of the companies, Mr. Palmer said, disclosed plans of some of the German interests by concealments and evasions of the law to perpetuate their control of the companies during and after the war.

Comouflaged Vessels Join In Victory Day Celebration

Vessels in New York harbor joined in the universal celebration on Victory Day. When the news that the signing of the armistice had ended the world war reached shipping circles, the hundreds of craft in and about New York docked themselves out with vari-colored bunting and the flags of the allies. Free Iom of Seas Great Peace Question

AMERICAN ARMY NEARING BORDER

NO SIGN OF TREACHERY

Advance So Far Indicates That the German General Staff Is Faithfully Carrying Out Terms of the Armistice.

Ghent, Belgium, Nov. 20.—The last stragglers of the German forces are passing out of Brussels. It is a sad cavalcade of sullen, depressed men filing out along the road, heading for Louvain and Liege. Brussels is calm. The population is refraining from any manifestation beyond disdainfully shouting to the departing soldiers, "To Berlin." The soldiers do not respond, merely smiling sadly.

With the American Army of Occupation, Nov. 20.—Major General Joseph T. Dickman's army is well into Belgium and within a few hours' march of the German frontier. Halted for Short Time.

The line was unchanged. In accordance with the plan the march has been halted for a short time, in order that the heavier artillery, supply service and other elements may be brought up.

However, General Dickman's headquarters were moved on to Longuyon and corps and division commanders made similar advances.

As the Germans withdrew the concentration of the army of occupation is increased and not for a moment has vigilance been relaxed. All possible tactical advantage is carefully taken and the forces are so deployed that the peaceful march might easily be converted into a hostile operation.

See No Sign of Treachery.
The second day of the advance served to confirm the belief at the American headquarters, however, that there was no thought of treachery in the minds of the German general staff and that the terms of the armistice will be faithfully carried out.

There have been a few isolated cases where surrendered materials have been damaged, but it is not thought such damage was wrought under orders of German commanders. The surrender of damaged airplanes at the airdrome in Tellancourt is regarded as a case where individual aviators determined to put their machines out of commission rather than have them fall into the hands of an enemy, much as a cavalryman would shoot a favorite horse.

Enormous stores of ammunition and many guns left at Longuyon were little impaired and the machine shops there were not damaged.

Yards at Montmedy Filled.
The railway yards at Montmedy and other places along the line that served the Germans as one of their main arteries of communication during their last stand against the Allied advance were filled with locomotives and cars ready for use, while great quantities of general stores not mentioned in the terms of the armistice had been abandoned to the Allies.

Testimony taken in executive session virtually is completed and Senator McKellar of Tennessee, chairman, announces that a report will be submitted soon after the new session of Congress convenes.

PICKANDS-MATHER MEN ON THE RANGE

Came to Brainerd in Northwestern Road Car and Then Toured Range in Automobiles

SUNK FIRST SHAFT ON RANGE

Later Disposed of Holdings on South Range, Nokay Lake, to Northwestern Improvement Co.

Pickands-Mather Co., mining officials of Cleveland, Ohio and Duluth, visited Brainerd today, arriving in a Northwestern car and then being taken in automobiles for a tour of the range.

In the party were Vice President H. G. Dalton of Cleveland; General Manager C. H. Munger, Duluth; Chief Engineer W. A. Rose, Duluth; E. E. Stevens, Cleveland; Assistant General Manager W. P. Chinn, Duluth; J. C. Barr, general manager of the Pittsburgh Steel Ore Co., Riverton.

The Pickands-Mather people are pioneers of the Chyuna range. They sunk the first shaft, located in the southeast quarter of section eight of Nokay Lake township. The surface encountered measured 89 feet. The shaft was put to ledge at 125 feet. They crossed southward 210 feet. An 89 feet drift extended from the middle of the crosscut. The tonnage blocked out is reported to have measured about 150,000 tons. Their first results appeared discouraging and eight years ago they disposed of their holdings to the Northwestern Improvement Co., the subsidiary corporation of the Northern Pacific.

The ground, however, is believed to have a higher value than first attached by the Pickands-Mather people. The westerly three forties were never drilled and it is believed they encountered the leanest ground in their exploration work.

Officials of the party would vouch safe no information as to their mission. Other mining men of the range said it was the company's annual inspection of the range, thus getting first-hand information regarding development work.

EXPLANATION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CITY CHARTER

No. 10. A Public Utility Fund.

This fund is supported by revenue derived from the public utilities of the city and should never require any levy whatever to maintain it.

The receipts from the public utilities are paid into this fund and the manner of making disbursements is fully set forth which includes payment of interest on public utility bonds and is a saving to the tax payers by not having this interest included in the tax levy. It also provides the method of turning the surplus into the Sinking Fund for the retirement of public utility bonds while any are outstanding and then by retiring other bonds of the city. This section greatly improves the old charter provisions.

No. 11. A Contingent Fund

This is only a small matter but nevertheless at times it might be very important. An estimate of only 1-8 of a mill is required to maintain this fund of Three Thousand Dollars for use in preserving the safety and well being of the city.

No. 12. A Musical Entertainment Fund.

This fund calls for the levy of one half mill the same as has been included in our tax levy for several years. The sum received from this levy is paid over to the band for their summer concerts and for furnishing music on other public occasions.

No. 13. A Permanent Improvement Revolving Fund.

This fund does not require a tax levy. It was established several years ago under our present charter by the sale of permanent improvement revolving fund bonds. Out of this fund are paid these bonds as they fall due and the installments on contracts for such paving as is to be paid for by assessments against benefited property. These assessments are payable in ten semi annual installments. However, this fund is quite well described by its name.

As previously set forth in explanation of No. 9 this section (No. 13) is closely related to No. 9 particularly in regard to the cost of repaving streets whereby the property owner pays only practically fifty per cent of such repaving inclusive of intersections and alleys.

One new and highly important feature has been added to this section. Our present charter requires interest on all paying assessments as soon as entered on the tax lists whether work be commenced at once or delayed for years.

This amendment provides that NO INTEREST SHALL BE CHARGED UNTIL AFTER THE ACTUAL COMMENCEMENT OF THE WORK OF IMPROVEMENT. This removes a very serious objection that has heretofore existed.

No. 14. A Hydrant Rental, Street Lighting and Electric Power Fund.

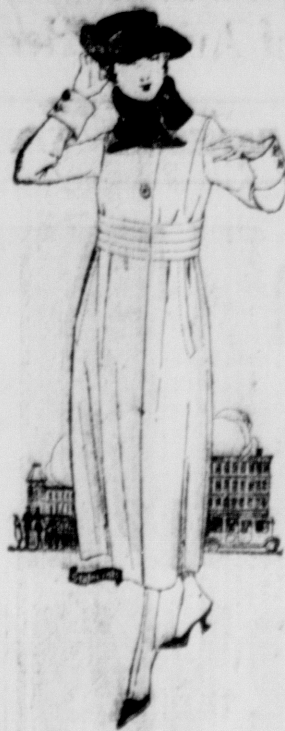

For this fund a levy of three mills is provided. It may not be generally known, but it is a fact nevertheless, that the revenue of the city has been so limited for the past three or four years that payment for street lights and water for fire purposes was at first allowed to get gradually behind but as the finances of the city became still more pinched, no payment whatever was made on the account and has not been for over two years and today the city owes the Water & Light Board over $17,500. Some people might say "What's the difference." There is all the difference possible. A department to which is

What Your Bank Check Records

Have you ever stopped to think of the numerous things on this bank?

You record on your check the name of the person you are paying and the exact date of payment.

You record also the amount which you pay. You can, if you desire, state on the face of the check just what the payment was for, and whether it was in full of account.

Then, when the one in whose favor the check is drawn endorses it on the back before cashing it, he formally and indisputably acknowledges receipt of the funds.

This chronicle of a financial transaction is handed back to you when paid by the bank, to be placed upon file as a complete and most satisfactory record of this transaction.

Contrast this method with that of the person who pays in currency. What record has HE of the money he pays out?

ARMISTICE DOES NOT BAR RED CROSS WORK

The Work, in Fact, will be Even Greater Than in the Past Few Months for Local Chapter

PLEDGES DUE 15TH OF MONTH

Home Service Division Aids Needy Relatives of Soldiers Not Receiving Allotments

Attention is called to the fact that the work of the Red Cross is not over by any means nor will it be by reason of the fact that an armistice has been declared. The work, in fact, in many respects will be even greater than it has been in the past few months, and those who have made monthly pledges to the Brainerd Chapter are urged to make their payments promptly and clean up any payments they may be in arrears at once.

Payments are due the 15th of every month and there are several who have of late neglected these payments with the consequence that a considerable amount of money is unpaid. The Brainerd Chapter aims to meet its obligations promptly and just at present a considerable amount is being spent for civilian work, influenza relief and other work.

The Home Service division of the A. R. C. is especially busy and money has been advanced in several cases to needy relatives of soldiers who have not received their regular allotment from the government. These demands upon the treasury of the Brainerd Chapter make it imperative that monthly pledges are paid up promptly.

The annual meeting of the Chapter will be held as soon as possible after the influenza ban has been lifted and the officers are very anxious to have a clean slate, with pledges paid up to date and the accounts in good shape. Local people can assist the officers materially if they will pay these pledges promptly and clean up all unpaid pledges.

Windmill Electricity.
Windmills are used to generate electricity in the Netherlands, where waterpower is scanty. The wind acting through the windmill drives the generator, producing the electricity, which is then stored in a storage battery and used for various purposes.

DON'T FORGET THE BOYS NOW OVERSEAS

Would you care to provide a Christmas box for a soldier across the seas who has no one in this country upon whom he may call for the same? If so, you can secure a Christmas package coupon, properly addressed, place this on the Red Cross regulation box and place your gifts therein. It will be forwarded under Red Cross supervision to the soldier addressed.

The local Chapter has received a small quota of these special coupons for soldiers across the seas without any near relatives here, and it would seem that public spirited citizens of Brainerd will be glad to make it possible for them to receive a Christmas box at the same time other fellows who are more fortunate in having relatives do.

Mrs. Geo. D. LaBar has charge of this department of work and the coupons have been placed in the hands of Mrs. G. S. Swanson for distribution.

Full of Cold: Had the Grip

Many will be pleased to read how Lewis Newman, 506 Northland St., Charleston, W. Va., was restored to health. He writes: "I was down sick and nothing would do me any good. I was full of cold. Had the grip until I got two 50c bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar. It is the best remedy for grip and colds I ever used." H. P. Dunn, druggist. mwf

POSTOFFICE ORDER ON XMAS PARCELS

"The nearest relatives of any member of the American Expeditionary Forces in Europe, not receiving a Christmas parcel label by November 21, 1918, or in case such label is lost, may obtain a Christmas parcel label for sending such a parcel by applying to the Red Cross receiving station. Parcels to which such labels are affixed will be accepted by postmasters up to and including November 30, 1918."

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

Chief of Police John D. Gile is a Sherlock Holmes sleuth too. Yesterday a boy appropriated a rifle from the buggy of Dan Campbell, fireman of St. Joseph's hospital as the latter was on his way to kill some stock for butchering.

In 15 minutes Chief Gile recovered the gun and had the offending "kid" in custody.

The Dispatch one time wrote up a fisherman and the wonderful catch made of a big trout.

Next day an old whistler fellow came in from Northeast Brainerd and said very philosophically:

"Godd darn it, seems that the man that buys a fish gets a bigger whet than the fellow that catches him. I caught that trout yesterday and sold it for a dollar. Of course, I ought to be satisfied but I really think more now of a good whet than the money and I wish I hadn't sold the fish to the fellow you wrote up."

The "Barnesonian" printed in Deerwood has issued its November number. The magazine was once reviewed by the Deerwood Enterprise and the editor unwittingly gave publicity to its strong qualities by dividing the title on two lines and making it read, "Barnes-onion."

The story is told of a Brainerd hunter who often related the most blood curdling, lurid hunting stories ever heard of and when called to a show down he often resorted to buying ducks in order to keep the hunting reputation on an even keel.

On one occasion he had bragged about the deer he had brought in and his friends clamored for deer meat and accused him of being a tight wad and no sport at all if he didn't give them some of the trophies of the chase, as the headlines say. Mr. Hunter was hard pressed. He had come back from the woods with not a hair or hide of a deer. But that didn't phase him a bit when it was necessary to save that reputation for being a great hunter.

He hiked to a butcher shop, bought a veal roast and then went to a barber shop where there was a mounted head, pulled a bunch of whiskers out of the deer's head and liberally strewed it over the meat.

The recipient got fooled on the meat and believed it was deer meat and bragged so much about it that Mr. Hunter had to get six more veal roasts at the butcher shop and treat them with deer hair to satisfy the clamor of the rest of his friends.

Still it was cheap at that price, for it saved the reputation of the deer hunter.

BRAINERD MAN HEADS BIG MOVIE THEATRE

IS FORMER NEWSPAPER MAN

Iowa House Seats 2,000; Has Pipe Organ and Orchestra and Fifteen Employes

Arthur E. Weld, now directing the Strand theatre at Cedar Rapids, Iowa advertised as the finest photoplay house in the middle west, has written to his uncle, Charles A. Krech, describing events in the movie world.

Mr. Weld was born in Brainerd and spent his childhood in the city and early received those impressions which in later years made him a newspaperman of ability and then a commanding figure in the world of the movies.

In his letter to Mr. Krech he writes:

Dear Uncle Charlie: Hello. How's the Slippery Liz expert? Understand you are a regular shark when it comes to stacking the deck and dealing the poor ones to your opponents.

Rather surprised to hear from me, eh? Well, I'm somewhat surprised to be writing you from Cedar Rapids, for I made a quick switch from California without much preparation. Am now manager of the Strand, as you probably deduced from my stationery. The firm owning this playhouse offered me $45 a week for the first six months and then $50, so I jumped the first train leaving Los Angeles, and here I am. Found the house closed on account of influenza. As manager of a dark theatre, I am a howling success.

Really, I have a very fine theatre; the biggest in Iowa. It seats 2,000, has pipe organ and orchestra, 15 employes, including a porter in uniform who officiates at the front to assist patrons from their autos, etc. All I have to do is run the place and look dignified. Can you imagine your nephew looking dignified? Not if you knew how well I can appreciate a joke. The enclosed clipping surely made me laugh.

Let me hear from you once in a while.

Your nephew,

ARTHUR.

A Cedar Rapids paper gives Mr. Weld this mention:

Arthur E. Weld of Los Angeles, Calif., recently appointed manager of the Strand theatre, has arrived in the city and assumed his duties. Mr. Weld who is a former newspaper man is one of the best known moving picture men in the United States. For the last five years he has been identified with the industry in California in the publicity and production departments and he comes to the Strand well qualified to keep it to the fore as one of the leading picture houses of the west, and it will be his endeavor to present to the Cedar Rapids public only the best there is in the picture world. It will be his aim to continue the present policy of the theatre.

As the theatre is closed on account of the Spanish influenza, Mr. Weld is devoting his time to superintending the overhauling of the theatre. It is being renovated throughout and the ventilating system is being overhauled. Mr. Weld declares the renovating system of this theatre is the best to be found in any theatre in America.

At one time in his career Mr. Weld was city editor of the Waterloo Evening Courier and not long ago was an editorial writer on the Los Angeles Evening Express. Several years ago he gained some prominence as a song writer, furnishing lyrics for such well known composers as Eugene Kaueffer of Chicago, Maxim De-

MEXICAN VILLAGE IN RUINS

Place Destroyed in Battle Between Federal and Villa Forces.

Presidio, Tex., Nov. 20.—After having engaged in a number of skirmishes with Villa followers, General Jose Murguia and a command of Mexican Federals arrived in the border town of Ojinaga, bringing with them a number of wounded. No total of casualties was given out. Federal soldiers said fighting occurred at the village of Saccaros, which General Murguia destroyed, bringing all women and children and supplies to Ojinaga.

Census Begins Next July.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Plans for taking the next decennial census in 1920 are rapidly assuming a definite form. Secretary Redfield said the work of enumerating the more than a hundred million inhabitants of the United States will be started on a large scale about next July. The skeleton organization for the huge task has been formed. Secretary Redfield said. The Census bureau has decided to ask for use of two of the large buildings in Washington now occupied by bureaus of the War department.

Who Should Take Nuxated Iron and Why They Should Take It

Physician Explains—gives Practical Advice On What To Do To Help Build Up Your Strength, Power and Endurance And Increase The Red Blood Corpuscles.

THE ELDERLY
INACTIVE MAN

THE TIRED
NERVOUS

THE "RUN-DOWN"
BUSINESS

BUSINESS MAN

Commenting on the use of Nuxated Iron as a tonic, strength and blood builder, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said: "Modern methods of cooking and the rapid pace at which people of this century live have made such an alarming increase in iron deficiency in the blood of American men and women that I have often marveled at the large number of people who lack iron in the blood—and who never suspect the cause of their weak, nervous, run-down state. Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man physically and mentally weak, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have found the necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red-blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real and true cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body, something like corn through an old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind."

"For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and 'run-down,' while at fifty or sixty, with plenty of iron in your blood, you may make a position in life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy."

"As proof of this take the case of Former United States Senator and Vice-Presidential Nominee Charles A. Towne, who at past 58 is still a veritable mountain of tireless energy. Senator Towne says: 'I have found Nuxated Iron of the greatest benefit as a tonic and regenerative. Henceforth I shall not be without it. I am in a position to testify for the benefit of others to the remarkable and immediate helpfulness of this remedy, and I unhesitatingly recommend Nuxated Iron to all who feel the need of renewed energy and the regularity of bodily functions.'"

"Then there is Former Health Commissioner William R. Kerr, of Chicago, who is past the three score year mark, but still vigorous, active, full of life, vim and energy. Former Health Commissioner Kerr says he believes his own personal activity today is largely due to his use of Nuxated Iron and that he believes it ought to be prescribed by every physician and used in every hospital in the country."

Vote for the new city charter at the special election Dec. 3. It means sufficient revenue to meet the city's expenses and equitable and fair way of improving the city streets without it being a burden on the abutting property owner as at present. With more improved streets it means more comfortable riding for the owner and users of automobiles in the city. In fact it means an improved and better city to live in, with good streets, well lighted and well protected against fire, and the cost being equitably distributed in the taxes over the entire city will be very nominal for every home owner.

The first duty of congress should be to pass an act making it possible to revoke the naturalization papers of all naturalized Americans who by word or act were pro-German during the war, and return them to the country whence they came. When they were naturalized they swore allegiance to their native country and swore to uphold this country. This oath they violated when put to the test, and they don't deserve the benefits of our laws and institutions.

An Important Message Regarding the Sugar Shortage

THERE'S an old saying "It's an ill wind that blows no good!"

Everyone has been inconvenienced more or less by the sugar shortage. Many people still rely entirely on sugar for sweetening and, of course, are inconvenienced.

But thousands of housewives have not only found "a way out" during the present shortage, but have learned a thing or two that will stick forever—sugar or no sugar.

Brer Rabbit real New Orleans Molasses not only sweetens like sugar, but it gives

Yet Brer Rabbit is not a "substitute" for sugar. It is practically sugar itself. Like sugar it is made from sugar cane and contains a large amount of real sugar.

Is it not quite natural that resourceful housewives have turned to Brer Rabbit Molasses during the sugar shortage?

For the Children

Gold Label Brer Rabbit Molasses gives to the child the elements the young growing body needs. Brer Rabbit is absolutely pure, wholesome, palatable and strengthening. Doctors will tell you what molasses and bread means to children.

Besides, it saves sugar, cuts the butter bill.

There are Two Kinds of Brer Rabbit Molasses

Both are Absolutely Pure New Orleans Molasses

GOLD LABEL Brer Rabbit is mild in flavor, light in color and is delicious for table use—as a spread for pancakes, waffles, biscuits, etc. It is especially fine for cooking, baking and candy making.

GREEN LABEL Brer Rabbit Molasses is darker in color, slightly stronger in flavor and is splendid for cooking, baking and candy making. It costs less than the Gold Label.

All Called On to Show Courage.

Whatever your sex or position, life is a battle in which you are to show your pluck; and you are to be the coward! Whether passed on a bed of sickness or a tented field, it is ever the same fair play and admits no foolish distinctions. Despair and postponement are cowardice and defeat. Men were born to succeed, not to fail.—Thoreau.

How a Salesman Suffered

R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. I was induced to try Foley Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great!" Prompt and tonic. H. P. Dunn, druggist.

FARMERS STIRRED BY RECENT FIRE LOSSES

HAY AND MACHINERY TOO

Follows Closely the Loss of Farm House Owned by Mrs. Wm. Cossette on 13th St. Road

Farmers of the South Thirteenth street road are becoming alarmed over what appears to be the work of firebugs in that locality. In months past a number of farmers' houses and barns have been leveled to the ground following mysterious fires.

The latest fire loss is that of Joseph Girard, four miles south of Brainerd, whose large barn is a total loss, coupled with the loss of considerable hay, farm machinery, harness and two cows and three calves. Girard was not at home at the start and burned arms and hands trying to rescue his cattle. He saved seven cows.

This barn fire follows closely on the loss of the farm home of Mrs. Wm. Cossette, located near the Girard farm. The vacant seven room house burned November 10.

The fire loss within the year along Thirteenth street road has included three farm houses and close to half a dozen barns.

At the Brainerd Gas & Electric Co. plant in this city all arrangements have been completed for winter and no matter how severe the weather may become, Brainerd is assured of an uninterrupted flow of gas, for everything possible that human ingenuity can do to circumvent the elements has been done.

Stores of oil and cake have been accumulated under the direction of Supt. Viereg of St. Cloud, who heads the gas department of the Whitney Public Utilities. Local Superintendent A. B. Willing has just had the Brainerd plant thoroughly overhauled. The two units are working fine.

Eugene Brick, gas maker of the company since the plant started operations in Brainerd, leaves the service of the company and will be succeeded shortly by George Orcutt. Mr. Orcutt has been employed as a gas maker at St. Cloud the past four years and has demonstrated his worth and ability. Mr. Brick made many friends in Brainerd and they regret to see him leave.

ARE IMPROVING KINDRED STREET

C. W. Koering Heads Detachment of Citizens Repairing Chuck Holes in Thoroughfare

"HAD TO BE DONE" SAID C. W. K.

Cinders Hauled and Spread so as to Insure Good Bottom Before Winter Freeze-up

Kindred street has become almost as impassable as a road on the war front of last October, when the Germans were fleeing before the allies.

C. W. Koering this morning could stand it no longer. He took off his coat and vest, hopped into a pair of overalls and headed a committee of citizens with wagons and other implements of road building and cinders were hauled and thrown into the worst craters and shell holes on the road.

Winter is coming soon and if the holes are not filled up, water will gather in them and freeze and crack and the mixup next spring will be a scene of desolation begging description.

To save that descriptive writing, Koering and his cohorts tackled the road proposition and did some commendable work today. Another zone of terrific bumps and holes extends from the hill west to Broadway and Johnson's bus has busted so many springs there that the bill was terrific.

There is only one consolation about Kindred street. Nobody, not even Koehler in his moments of greatest activities, has arrested a man for speeding over the Kindred terrain.

As an example of everything that a street should not be, it bears a great reputation. Had somebody only seen C. F. Kindred in Philadelphia before he died, he might have left some money to Brainerd to have the street which bears his name make a creditable appearance.

It's a street like this that can be made to look civilized, if the voters will adopt the new charter provisions.

Never A Night Before Away From Home

By BRUCE BARTON

The whole town was gathered on the platform that morning to see the train pull out—men and women and children, waving and cheering and trying hard to keep on smiling through their tears.

Out of the car windows leaned the boys to wave a last good-bye.

Just average, clear-eyed country town boys; twenty of them altogether. And seventeen of them had never slept a night away from home before.

They are dwelling in a strange land tonight, whose language they cannot understand.

But across the mud and the snow a light gleams warm from a hut on the edge of the town, and inside good cheer and happiness are ready for whoever will come in to claim them.

Friendship dwells in the hut; keep its warm fires burning bright this winter. Let it be perfectly clear to the men over there that you have not forgotten.

—to the men that only a little while ago were boys who had never slept a night away from home.

FARM TELEPHONE AND TOLL RATES

To be Aired at the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission Hearing at St. Paul Nov. 26

THE COMPANY SEEKS A RAISE

Claim Made that Increased Wages Asked by Employees Cannot be Met Unless Rates Raised

The strike of telephone operators and electrical workers of the telephone system at Minneapolis and St. Paul for higher wages has brought to a head a question which has been pending for some time. It affects not only the Tri-State, Northwestern, but other lines too.

The telephone employees without question, are entitled to a raise of salary. All employees have been extremely loyal during the war. All employees have records to be proud of for bond buying and subscribing to war activities. Never has any employee complained about the extra amount of work thrust on them during the rush of business caused by stress of war. Many times employees rushed to their post of duty when called by sudden war measures which meant extra hours of work for them.

There is no question that they are entitled to consideration for this loyalty.

The telephone companies, it has been reported, agree their employees should receive a substantial raise in salary.

The companies, however, cannot raise wages without approval of the postmaster general. The government officials agree there should be a raise given. They however have not the money to give, there being no appropriation set aside by congress to give this extra expense without receiving it in the form of revenue earned. All telephone companies have had an enormous increase of expense in the form of cost of construction, maintenance and operation. The telephone rent is practically the only item paid by the people which has not been raised.

To grant the raise of wages demanded by the employees, some adjustments of telephone rates must be made, as the companies must have additional revenue to meet the increase.

The Railroad and Warehouse Commission has set Tuesday, November 26th at 10 o'clock A. M., at St. Paul, for the hearing in the applications of the companies. This hearing is open to the public.

L. D. Taylor, manager of Northwestern Telephone Co. at Brainerd, states an effort will be made to secure a raise in toll rates and farm line rates as well as some changes in local rates in some towns and cities in Minnesota.

The farm line rate, he states, is now 25c a month for each farmer. This rate is much less than actual cost of operation and will undoubtedly be raised, he says.

Home Is Where the Boy Is In This War

By BRUCE BARTON

I visited a home where a service flag hangs; and while we ate and talked of the boy who is over there.

"I wonder if he is cold tonight," the mother said, "I wonder if he has a place to warm himself and dry his clothes; and something good to eat."

"What wouldn't I give to be with him," she said and we were silent, knowing her heart.

But I thought of the Soldiers of Friendliness who that very night would crawl out across No Man's Land to take chocolate and hot coffee to that boy.

Of the huts with their warm fires burning; of the great lecturers and preachers and actors and motion pictures that are over there.

And I thought to myself, "There is a difference between this and every other war. For when the boys have marched away before, the influence of their homes has stopped at the front gate and could go no farther.

But in this war it follows the flag, across the ocean, over the shell torn battle land, straight up to the front line trenches.

Home is where the boy is in this war. From every town and village the lines of helpfulness run out.

And no boy leaves his home behind him: step by step it travels with him, financed by the folks behind him—a token of their love.

FOE PLOTS TO TRICK ALLIES

London Sees Hun Plans to Snatch Victory by Revolts in Neutral Lands.

KAISER WOULD RETURN

Rumored, Intention of Former Emperor to Go Back to Germany, Creates Uncertain Situation—Foe Propagandists Active.

London, Nov. 20.—The Express says:

"There is evidence of a plot to trick the Allies, create a new German federation stronger than the former empire, foment revolutions in Holland and Switzerland, which would be added to the federation, and then foment revolutions in Allied countries and possibly in Sweden. Eventually the Kaiser would return."

London, Nov. 20.—Reports that former Emperor William may return to Germany, as reported by the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger's hint that he would be allowed to enter that country have caused a stir here. Several papers feature the reports as creating an uncertain situation which is rendered more doubtful by accounts of the activity of German propagandists in several countries.

Peril of Reaction Seen.

The fear mainly is that the former emperor would sooner or later become the center of a reactionary movement in Germany when the present revolutionary storm has blown over, and the advocates of this view consequently fear the return to his former empire.

On the other hand, the fact of the former ruler placing himself or being placed in the hands of the new rulers of Germany, would be welcomed in other quarters. These rulers, the Morning Post argues, should be able to execute judgment upon him and in so doing would only be acting as fitting instruments of justice.

Unwelcome in Holland.

There is everywhere, however, agreement in the idea that the former emperor's presence in Holland is intolerable and it is insisted that he must somehow be made impotent to do further mischief. The reports from Holland show that the uninvited guest is becoming daily more unwelcome there. Related advices from The Hague show that the Dutch socialists reiterated in parliament their objections to his presence and demanded that he be deported.

Plot to Trick Allies.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from The Hague reports that the German soldiers' council in Antwerp adopted a resolution that the soldiers' and workmen's council in Berlin demand extradition of the former emperor and the former crown prince, as well as certain generals. The resolution expresses belief that the ex-royal exercises too much influence in Holland and forms the center of counter-revolutionary intrigue.

The Daily Express sees the possibility of a plot to trick the Allies and create a federation far exceeding in strength and resources the former German empire.

Drives Without an Escort

King George Breaks Precedent on Trip to Parliament.

London, Nov. 20.—Another precedent went the way of other precedents when King George, accompanied by Queen Mary and the Prince of Wales, went to the palace at Westminster to receive and reply to the loyalty address passed by the houses of parliament.

Heretofore it had been the custom of the parliament to go to the king on such occasion. The royal party drove to the palace at Westminster without escort and was loudly cheered along the route.

Crossed Dutch Province

Holland Said to Have Permitted German Invasion.

Paris, Nov. 20.—It appears to be a fact, says the Temps, that German troops returning to Germany from Belgium crossed the Dutch province of Limburg and that they passed the frontier with the sanction of the Holland authorities. This free passage of Dutch territory granted to one of the belligerents, the newspaper contends, constitutes a precedent which the other belligerent powers would be justified in taking advantage of.

Mooney Sympathy Strike Planned.

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The Central Labor council of Oakland called a meeting for Dec. 2 to consider a general strike in protest against the execution of Thomas Mooney.

Women Ask Recognition.

New York, Nov. 20.—The National American Woman Suffrage association, meeting here, adopted a resolution urging President Wilson to give women "adequate representation" of the United States delegation to the peace conference. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, speaking in favor of the resolution, declared there are 27,000,000 women in the United States who deserve such recognition. "Men know something about men, but together men and women know all things about men and women."

WOMAN'S SPHERE IN FRANCE

Her Influence Is Probably Greater Than in Any Other Country of the World.

The greatness of France lies in her sense of the beauty and importance of living. As life is an art in France, so woman is an artist. She does not teach man, but she inspires him. And as the French woman of the broad-winged class influences her husband, and her regards her judgment and her wishes, the same is similarly true of the French woman of the rich and educated class, the French woman of leisure. But in this world her influence naturally tends much farther.

The more civilized a society is the wider is the range of each woman's influence over men, and of each man's influence over women. Intelligent and cultivated people of either sex will not limit themselves to communing with their own households. Men and women equally, when they have the range of interests that real cultivation gives, need the stimulus of different points of view, the refreshment of new ideas as well as of new faces.

No one who has seen French women can doubt that their great influence on French life, French thought, French imagination and French sensibility is one of the strongest elements in the attitude France holds before the world today.—Ladies' Home Journal.

NO OBSTACLE DAUNTS RATS

Rodents in Norway, When Setting Out to Exile, Have Never Been Known to Turn Aside.

The rats of Norway employ a remarkable method to avoid a famine. When starvation threatens, those that are chosen for exile assemble in countless thousands in the mountain valleys leading to the plains and pour across the country in a straight line, which is often more than a mile in length. They devour every green thing in their path, and the country through which they pass looks as if it had been plowed or burned with fire.

They march principally by night and during the morning, resting in the afternoon. No matter how abundant the food may be in any particular locality they do not seek to settle in it, for their destination is the sea, and nothing animate or inanimate, if it can be surmounted, retards the advance.

Foxes, lynxes, weasels, kites and owls hover on the rodents' line of march and destroy them by the hundreds. The fish in the rivers and lakes take their toll of them, too, but the survivors press onward.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wet's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wet's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

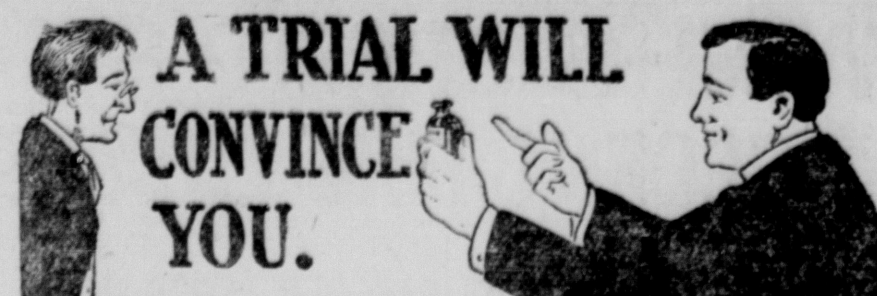

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE YOU.

Nothing that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.

Chamberlain's Tablets

The Government is raising $2,000,000,000 this year through War Savings Stamps—that is only an average of $20 for every man, woman and child in the United States.
